

EMED - EMERGENCY MEDICINE

EMED 721 Emergency Medicine Elect I (2-6 Credit Hours)

Emergency Medicine selective represents where knowledge and skills gained by the student in Core rotations come together in the fast-paced emergency department. In conjunction with Emergency Department personnel, the student will evaluate and treat patients of all ages who are experiencing medical, surgical, or psychiatric emergencies.

Academic Level: Graduate

EMED 722 Emergency Medicine Elect II (2-6 Credit Hours)

Emergency Medicine selective represents where knowledge and skills gained by the student in Core rotations come together in the fast-paced emergency department. In conjunction with Emergency Department personnel, the student will evaluate and treat patients of all ages who are experiencing medical, surgical, or psychiatric emergencies.

Academic Level: Graduate

EMED 723 Emergency Medicine Elect III (2-6 Credit Hours)

Emergency Medicine selective represents where knowledge and skills gained by the student in Core rotations come together in the fast-paced emergency department. In conjunction with Emergency Department personnel, the student will evaluate and treat patients of all ages who are experiencing medical, surgical, or psychiatric emergencies.

Academic Level: Graduate